There were more students in full-time studies as well as more church leaders and members who took advantage of studying in night classes or the ever popular “Lay Leadership Training.” Here are a few of the statistics: Full-time students 66 Night class students 61 Lay Leadership Training 55	Pray for the Thailand Baptist Theological Seminary <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✧ Pray for student mission teams who will proclaim the gospel throughout the country in March. (Our summer break is March –May.) ✧ Pray for the faculty and all the preparations being made for the new year of study beginning May 26. Pray that the right courses will be offered and that those who are called to serve will be able to come and study. ✧ Pray for new students who are currently enrolling for the new term. Some new students will come from mountain tribes and have big adjustments to make to living in the megacity of Bangkok. Many will be the first person in their families to follow Christ, and may have much opposition to overcome. ✧ Pray for the budget for the new school year that God will graciously provide all our needs.
2007–2008 Term Break Not Really a Break! Students and faculty both are set to make maximum use of the term break March 3 - May 26. Faculty members are busy preparing for the new school year, planning for courses, interviewing new students, and preparing a host of activities for the year to come. Some faculty members are furthering their education through studies with the Asia Baptist Graduate Theological Studies consortium. Full-time students have dispersed throughout Thailand to proclaim the gospel and encourage churches. Seven teams of students will hold camps for children and youth, preach and teach in local churches, and conduct outreach and evangelistic activities. Participation in these teams gives students valuable experience and inspires them to have a heart for the lost. If you wish to consider how you can support some of the financial needs listed to the right, you may contact obtain instructions by sending an email to Dr. Chaiwat at cman55@truemail.co.th	How You Can Help the Thailand Baptist Theological Seminary There are various opportunities for volunteer involvement in the ministry of the seminary.
